Does Direct File include support?

Yes! Direct File users can receive support via live chat from dedicated IRS Direct File customer support specialists in English and Spanish.

Can I use Direct File to complete my state return?

Yes! Direct File users who need to file state income taxes will be connected to their state's free online tax tool to complete their filing.

In AZ, MA, and NY, users will have the option to have their federal tax return information conveniently and securely transferred from Direct File to their state's online tax tool. In CA, users will be connected to California's CalFile tool, which pre-populates some state information to make the state filing easier.
